

ENGLISH FOR SPECIFIC PURPOSES WORKSHOPS 2025-1

English Area offers free, practical workshops aimed at improving oral expression skills in English for academic or workplace settings. These workshops are conducted remotely in synchronous sessions with English Area instructors. They are specifically designed for Rosarista postgraduate students, faculty, and researchers with an intermediate B1 level of English.

Important info for Rosarista Professors:

Attending these sessions can help you earn up to 16 hours of professional development.

Workshops on Oral Expression in Academic Settings

The content of these workshops covers the use of formal and informal language, the analysis and presentation of information, debates, frequently mispronounced words, among other topics.

Workshops on Oral Expression in the Workplace

In addition to improving fluency and pronunciation, these workshops help develop specific communication skills for making short presentations (such as pitches), summarizing meeting conclusions, and interacting professionally over the phone.

How to Participate:

The workshops have limited spots and require prior registration.
Registration is done through the E-Aulas

Workshop schedule

All sessions are held at the same time, on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4:00 p.m to 5:00 p.m, via remote access on Zoom.

MARCH

DATE	TOPIC	CONTENT
March 18th	Effective pronunciation	Enhance your clarity and confidence in speaking by mastering key pronunciation techniques.
March 20th	Beginning and ending a phone call	Learn effective strategies for starting and concluding phone conversations professionally.
March 25th	Reporting information in a meeting	Develop skills to accurately and concisely report information during meetings.
March 27th	The Persuasive Speech	Gain techniques for crafting and delivering compelling and convincing speeches.

APRIL

DATE	TOPIC	CONTENT
April 1sh	Linking ideas in short interactions	Improve your ability to seamlessly connect ideas during brief conversations.
April 3rh	Managing Speech Anxiety	Learn strategies to manage and reduce anxiety when speaking in public or academic settings.
April 8th	Intonation matters	Understand the importance of intonation and how it affects the meaning and effectiveness of your speech.
April 10th	Leaving a voice message	Master the art of leaving clear, concise, and effective voice messages
April 15th	Improving your fluency	Enhance your fluency in speaking through practical exercises and techniques.
April 22nd	Effective pronunciation II	Refine your pronunciation for greater clarity and impact in communication.
April 24th	Communication and the art of pitching	Learn how to effectively pitch ideas and communicate persuasively.
April 29th	Intonation matters II	Deepen your understanding of intonation and its role in effective communication.

MAY

DATE	TOPIC	CONTENT
May 6th	Contrasting information	Learn how to use hedging language in academic conversations
May 8th	Clarifying and requesting clarification in discussions	Learn how to ask for and provide clarification effectively to ensure clear and accurate communication in professional settings.
May 13th	Connecting and linking reasons	Enhance your ability to logically connect and link reasons in your speech.
May 15th	The Persuasive Speech II	Advanced techniques for delivering even more powerful and persuasive speeches.
May 20th	Answering questions	Improve your skills in answering questions clearly and confidently in various settings.
May 22th	Presenting conclusions	Learn how to effectively present and summarize conclusions in your presentations.
May 27th	Advanced pronunciation	Improve your pronunciation and intonation to enhance clarity and confidence when speaking in academic contexts.
May 29th	Giving and receiving constructive feedback	Develop essential skills for providing and responding to feedback in a professional and supportive manner.

To register, click here

